

THE FAIRIES LAND SERIES

THE STOLEN TOOTH

By Ishita Padiyar, Grade 2A

CHAPTER ONE – TOM AND LISA

Once there lived 2 children – Tom and Lisa in a big house in Goa. Tom was 7 years old while Lisa was 5 years old. Lisa believed in fairies but Tom did not.

They had a big beautiful garden in front of their house. They had recently shifted there. One day, when Tom and Lisa were strolling in the garden, Tom noticed a big hole.

Lisa said, “Let’s go explore the hole.” Tom said, “I’ll first get a rope and torch”.

Tom went running and returned with rope and torch.

He noticed a big strong stone nearby and decided that he could tie the rope to the stone to lower themselves in.

He tied the rope to the stone and then Tom helped Lisa down the hole using the loose end of the rope.

It was very dark inside. Tom shone his torch around. There were red walls and a hole in the wall which was large enough for them to crawl through.

Both of them crawled through the hole for quite some time and found themselves come out into a large room. It had same red walls and another hole of the same width in the wall like before.

The 2 children wanted to find out what lay ahead. So they again decided to go through the hole. They crawled through the hole for some time and found another tunnel going down with a ladder. They climbed down the ladder and reached a beautiful sunny place.

As soon as they landed, they saw people with wings in the size of pencils and erasers flying in the sky and some walking around.

Tom exclaimed, "What a beautiful place this is! What is this! Where are we? "

Lisa said excitedly pointing at the people in the sky, "Wow! Those look like fairies!" Tom laughed and said, "Of course not! Fairies don't exist!"

Lisa ignored him and ran towards a walking fairy excitedly.

Tom sighed and called out to Lisa, "Lisa wait! Come back! We don't know if it's safe!"

But, Lisa had already gone to a fairy and was talking to her.

Tom murmured to himself, "Oh no! Now I have to follow her!" and ran towards Lisa.

CHAPTER TWO – FAIRY LAND FROM THE CHILDREN’S EYES.

Tom went to Lisa and told her, "Lisa, we should go back. This is a strange place, it might be dangerous for us here."

Lisa ignored Tom and told the person with wings who she had approached, "Hello! What is your name? Are you a fairy? My name is Lisa, I am a human"

The person with wings responded, "Calm down Lisa! I am Roseletten. And, yes, I am a fairy!" Tom was in shock. He didn't know how fairies could exist!

Roseletten continued, "Lisa, What are you doing here? Humans are not expected here. How did you find Fairy Land?"

Tom said, "Are you really a fairy?? Or are you playing dress up?? Fairies don't exit!"

Lisa said, "Roseletten, please ignore Tom. He's my brother and he does not believe in fairies. We happened to find a tunnel in the garden opposite our house which led us here!"

Roseletten, then asked them, "Now that you are here, would you like to see our land?" Lisa said excitedly, "Yes yes! That would be awesome!"

CHAPTER TWO – FAIRYLAND FROM THE CHILDREN'S EYES.

Roseletten then told the children that she would introduce them to the different types of fairies.

After they visited the different places in fairy land, Roseletten said, “I will take you to my house now. We can meet other fairies later when they are free”.

The children agreed.

They flew to Roseletten's house. It was covered with flowers of different colors. The roof was also made of thick flowers. The walls were made out of stems of thick flowers and the door was made out of white flowers.

The house was tiny but was big enough for Lisa and Tom to crawl into.

Once they went inside, they observed It was beautiful inside. They felt happy looking at the interiors of the house.

CHAPTER THREE – Lisa and Tom meet the fairies

After some time, Roseletten said that the other fairies should be free to meet you both now.

Tom asked, "Will we be flying again?"

Roseletten replied, "Yes, we'll fly. Are you ready?"

Both Tom and Lisa nodded excitedly.

Roseletten opened the door and all 3 of them flew into the sky. She said, "Hadden't I showed you a treehouse which I said was the meeting place for fairies? We are going there now to meet the others"

They flew to the treehouse. They saw a fairy flying towards the treehouse. Roseletten then pointed to the fairy and said, "Tom and Lisa, meet Eclina. She is a tooth fairy!"

Eclina had red small wings, an orange dress with prints of teeth, dark red hair and green eyes.

Eclina smiled at them and said, "Hi Tom and Lisa! Nice to meet you!"

The children smiled at Eclina and thought she was very friendly and nice.

Another fairy flew to the treehouse. Roseletten pointed at her and said, "That is Flena. She is a water fairy"

Flena wore a blue dress and blue shoes. She had blonde long hair, and dark blue eyes.

Flena said, "Hi Tom and Lisa! Nice to meet you both!"

Many fairies flew to the treehouse and spoke to Lisa and Tom and welcomed them to the fairy land.

After a while, a tall fairy came. She had long black hair, wore a yellow dress and red shoes, and colorful eyes.

All the fairies started greeting the new fairy. Roseletten told Tom and Lisa that the tall fairy was their Queen and that she lived in the Queen's castle that she had shown them. Lisa greeted the Queen. Tom also followed. Roseletten told the Queen, "The 2 children, Lisa and Tom came here from their garden. They saw a hole, went inside it, found another tunnel and finally reached here!"

The Queen said, "Hello Lisa and Tom, welcome to Fairy Land! You should not stay long here because your parents will be worried and one hour here is a day in your world. "

Tom said sadly, "Okay, I understand. We will stay here for some more time and go back home"

The queen said, "Thank you for understanding. I now have to go back to my castle. I am happy to meet you both!"

The Queen then waved to all the fairies and left.

Roseletten said, "You can stay here for half an hour and then you can go home".

Tom and Lisa agreed reluctantly.

CHAPTER FOUR – THE TOOTH GETS STOLEN

Tom said, "We have half an hour left. What should we do, Lisa?"

Lisa said excitedly, "What about going to Eclina's house? She's a tooth fairy and I always wanted to see a tooth fairy's house. And she also seems very sweet!"

Tom said, "Yeah, let's ask Eclina first"

Lisa went to Eclina and asked her, "Hi Eclina, can we come to your house? I always wanted to see a tooth fairy's house"

Eclina smiled and said, "Of course, you can! I'll show you everything! Do you want to go now?" Lisa and Tom both said together, "Yes please!!" Eclina said, "Follow me, I'll take you to my house."

Eclina flew towards her house with Lisa and Tom following her.

Her house was beautiful. It had a yellow big roof made out of wood. It had yellow walls with small paintings of teeth in different sizes hung. The door was bright pink, with a tooth for a knob. There were some steps in front of the house leading to the main door. The steps were dark blue with small dots of white representing teeth.

Looking at the house, the children felt very happy and excited. They entered the house excitedly. Inside the house, all the furniture was made out of teeth and looked beautiful.

The teeth were painted in different colors and looked very colorful. There was a table painted with a mix of purple, blue, pink and orange colors. The chairs were white and blue.

There was a flower vase on the table also made of teeth. It was a mix of red and orange. The windows had curtains with tooth prints.

Lisa exclaimed, "What a colorful house!! I never thought a house could be filled with things made out of teeth! Such a beauty!"

Tom said, pointing at a hole near a window, "What is that hole there?"

Eclina said, "Oh, that is where I keep the teeth that I take from children to clean and check its quality before handing it over to builder fairies."

Tom went closer to the hole and said, surprised, "Eclina, there are no teeth here!! Have you not collected any recently?"

Eclina said, shocked, "Oh no! I did collect 1 tooth from a child yesterday night! A thief fairy must have stolen it!"

Lisa said sympathetically, "Don't worry Eclina. We will help you find the tooth! Tom and I will go look for it"

Eclina said, "Oh thank you children! That will let me collect more teeth that are due today!" She continued, "But, be careful. I will give you a wand and if you need any help from me, say, 'Talk aloud to Eclina' and give your location while also mentioning the help you need. To know where you are, I will give you a map that shows everything in fairyland."

Eclina then went to one of the desks in the room, opened it and took out a map. She handed over the map to Tom and said, "This is the map. Use it well."

Tom said, "We will use it well".

Then, Eclina took a wand and gave it to Lisa, saying, "This is the wand. Be careful and remember what I told you!"

Lisa nodded in agreement.

Eclina said, "You should come back quickly, otherwise your parents will worry". Both of them nodded. Eclina opened the door and said, "Bye children. Be careful and don't forget what I told you".

Lisa and Tom stepped out of the door and said, "Bye, Eclina. We will be back soon with your lost tooth!"

CHAPTER FIVE – THE THIEF

Lisa and Tom looked at the map. Tom pointed to a picture which said Tooth Fairy houses, and said, "This is where we are". He pointed to a place which said "Builder Fairy houses" and said, "Let's go here first and see if you can see the thief fairy anywhere nearby".

Lisa said, "Okay, that seems like a good plan. Let's go".

Tom said, looking at the map, "We should fly perfectly straight and then at the cross roads, we should go right".

Lisa nodded.

They flew to the crossroads. There they spotted a fairy flying with a big sack with a tooth at the top of the sack. The fairy did not notice Tom or Lisa.

Lisa said, "Go after the fairy, Tom. I'll follow".

Tom flew fast towards the fairy. The fairy looked back to make sure she hadn't dropped anything from the sack and saw Tom and Lisa flying behind her.

She flew to a nearby tree as she did not want anyone to see or hear her apply a spell to make herself invisible (If a person becomes invisible, he or she can see other invisible people).

Her voice was drowned by other fairies' noises, so Tom and Lisa could not hear the spell she uttered, but they knew she had gone near the tree. When Tom and Lisa went near the tree, they could not find her anywhere.

Lisa said, "Where she did disappear?! We saw her coming here!"

Tom said, "I don't know! You know fairies better than I do. So what do you think?" Lisa said, "No, I don't know, Tom. What do we do now?" Tom said, "Let's try right". Lisa said, "No, let's try left". Tom said, "Ok, let's go left!"

Both of them then flew towards the road on the left.

When they reached the middle of the street, Lisa asked Tom, "Where does this lead to?" Tom took out the map and said, "It leads to Traveller's rest house".

Lisa said excitedly, "Oh yes, traveller's rest house sounds very exciting!" Tom nodded and said, "Yes it does!"

They soon neared the end of the street and saw a big flag that said "TRAVELLER'S REST HOUSE".

They went inside and saw big hammocks in an outdoor garden area and in the middle of the garden, there was a big rest house.

Lisa said, "I feel like sleeping looking at the hammocks!"

Tom said, "Ha ha wake up! The hammocks are way too small!"

Lisa sighed and said, "Yeaah unfortunately!"

Tom said, "Let's go inside the rest house and see if the thief fairy is there". They went to the rest house and on entering, saw beds laid out in a big hall. Lisa said sadly, "No thief here!"

Tom said, "Let's go back to the cross roads and maybe try a different direction!"

Lisa nodded.

They both flew back to the garden area.

Lisa tried to not look at the hammocks which made her sleepy. They flew back to the crossroads.

Tom said, "Now let's take my direction – right! It leads to the builder fairies houses."

Lisa agreed.

They flew towards the right. They soon reached the end of the street. They saw an arch with the words "Welcome to builder fairies houses".

CHAPTER FIVE - THE THIEF

They entered the place and saw many beautiful houses on either side of the street. They only saw builder fairies all around them. There was no sign of the thief.

Tom said, "No thief here too!"

Lisa said sadly, "Yeah, now where do we go?"

Tom said, "Let's go back to the crossroads and try another direction!" They flew back to the crossroads and then flew towards north this time. Lisa asked, "Where does this road lead to?"

Tom checked the map and said, surprised, "It seems to lead nowhere! Nothing on the map!"

Lisa said, "Oh Wow! That's interesting! Let's check it out". Tom nodded.

They flew towards the end of the street and saw a plain land with nothing in sight.

Lisa said, "Come on, let's explore this land once!"

Tom said, "It's just a plain land. What is there to explore?"

Lisa said, "Let's just look around and see if there's anything interesting. Come on!"

Tom agreed reluctantly. Both of them walked onto the plainland.

CHAPTER SIX - ANIMATION LAND

Tom and Lisa saw an odd looking stick on the ground. Lisa said excitedly, "Look at that stick! It looks so odd! Should we check it out?"

Tom said, "It does look odd. Let's check it out."

The 2 children went near the stick and saw that it was a stick with small animated figures engraved on it.

Lisa said, "That is funny! It has so many figures with eyes, nose and mouth!" Tom said, "Let's pull it out and get a closer view".

Lisa tried pulling the stick out but she disappeared.

Tom murmured to himself, "Where did Lisa go? She was here just a moment ago!"

Tom decided to also try pulling the stick and see what happened.

He pulled the stick and landed in a beautiful grassy place which had thousands of inanimate things walking about and looking like animated versions of themselves.

He saw Lisa standing nearby looking at the things around her.

Tom ran to her and told her, "Hey Lisa! What place is this! Look at those things", pointing at the weird things moving around them.

Lisa said, "I know, Tom! I don't even know how we landed here! What do we do now?" Tom said, "We should get out of this place as soon as possible. Let's find a way to get out".

A chair approached them and said, "Welcome to animate animate land! Come and have a drink in my house! There are lots of things you can do here though you appear very strange!"

Lisa and Tom stared at the talking chair, surprised and shocked.

Tom managed to say, "Ok, we will have a drink in your house. Only if you tell us the way out of this animate animate land after that."

The chair said, laughing, "It is not called animate animate land! I just call it by that name! Actual name is 'Animation Land!' .I am Rise chair by the way. "

"Hello Rise chair!", Tom and Lisa said together. "We are Tom and Lisa", said Tom.

Rise chair led them to his house that looked very funny. It looked like a house made out of leaves and branches.

He opened the door that was made out of oak and welcomed them in.

They saw small tables with eyes, nose and mouth staring at them as they went in.

Lisa softly said, "Hello tables! We are Lisa and Tom. Nice to meet you!"

The tables said in a high pitched voice, "Hello Tom and Lisa!!Welcome to animation land! Our names are Table, Nable, Mable, Crable and Sable."

Tom said happily, "Hello Table, Nable, Mable, Crable and Sable!" Lisa said, "You have funny names!" "Hehehe", chuckled Crable.

Rise chair went to the kitchen and returned with 3 glasses of orange juice. He gave one each to Tom and Lisa and kept one for himself.

They drank the juice while talking to the tables and Rise chair.

After they finished drinking, Rise chair said, "As I promised, I will tell you the way out of here. Follow me".

Tom and Lisa said bye to all the tables telling them that they would visit again.

Rise chair went out of the house and led them to another odd looking stick. But, this time on the stick there were pictures of fairies flying.

Rise chair told them to pull the stick. The 2 children pulled the stick together and returned to the same plain land in Fairy Land.

They sighed with relief on realizing that they were back to the fairy land!

CHAPTER SEVEN – ELF LAND

Tom and Lisa were excited and also relieved after their adventure. They continued their exploration of the plain land.

They walked all around the plain land. While they were walking, they saw a tree with a big door carved on its trunk.

Lisa said, "Wow Look at that tree! It has a door. Ready for another adventure?"

Tom said, "Yes, that tree looks funny though. We might end up in the heart of the tree."

Tom went to the tree and tried pushing the door. The door opened and golden light came out of it.

Lisa said, "I don't think we will go to the heart of the tree. I wonder where we will end up!"

The 2 children walked into the tree through the door and ended up in another land with very tiny people walking all around.

Lisa whispered to Tom, "They look like elves, don't they? Like the ones we have always heard about in fairy tales."

An elf suddenly screamed, "Guards! Arrest those 2 giants! They don't belong here! They will spoil our kingdom".

Before Tom and Lisa could do anything, 2 tiny tough and strong looking elves held their legs tight so they couldn't move.

Tom asked, scared "What are these elves going to do to us?" Lisa said, scared, "No idea!"

They tried shaking their legs but the elves were very strong. Their grip on them tightened. The elves said to each other, "These beasts will be placed in the special cage for giants".

The 2 guard elves laughed and dragged them into a giant room. They pushed Tom and Lisa inside the room and locked the door.

Lisa said, sadly, "Now what do we do? How shall we get out of here?" Tom said, "Let's look around and see if there's anything that could help us get out". They looked around the room and found nothing.

Tom went to one of the corners of the room and found a funny looking stone in the shape of a mushroom. Tom called out to Lisa, "Lisa, come here! There is a stone in mushroom shape here with drawings of mushrooms engraved on it!"

Lisa went to Tom and said, "This does look funny. It might lead us out of here! Let's try pulling it out".

Lisa went to the stone and as she touched it, fell on the stone and disappeared.

Tom cried, "Not again!! She must have landed in some other place!" He then touched the stone and fell into a place with a lot of mushrooms!.

CHAPTER EIGHT - MUSHROOM LAND

Tom and Lisa had fallen into a land full of mushrooms. Everything around them were either mushrooms or in the shape of mushrooms!

Lisa said, "This place is full of mushrooms!! It is so funny that we keep getting stuck in these weird places".

Tom said, looking at Lisa, "Lisa, what happened to you!! You are also in mushroom shape!" Lisa looked at herself and screamed, "Oh no!!! I hate this place. Why am I a mushroom?"

Lisa then looked at Tom and said, "Tom, you are a mushroom too!!"
Tom said, "Aaaaarghhh! This is too weird!"
Lisa said, "Let's explore this place anyway!"

Tom and Lisa started walking around weirdly in their new mushroom shapes. As they walked, they got excited.

Lisa whispered to Tom, "They look like elves, don't they? Like the ones we have always heard about in fairy tales."

An elf suddenly screamed, "Guards! Arrest those 2 giants! They don't belong here! They will spoil our kingdom".

After exploring a bit, they saw a mushroom sitting on another mushroom. The second mushroom was singing a funny song.

It stopped singing on seeing Tom and Lisa and said, "Hello Hello Welcome Welco well. Mushroom Mushroom Mush la la la land!. I I I I am Mac..Mac.. Machra... Machraksha. I... I.. I.. I will tak.. takeie...you.. you.. you.. toto.. to..tomy house"

Lisa said to Tom, "Why is this mushroom talking so funnily?"

The mushroom said, "M..M..My n..n..name issss Mach Mach Mach Mach Machraksha".

Then it added, "Let me Let let me t..t.. take you you t..toto..toto..toto my..my..my.. h..oo..u..s..e"

Lisa and Tom couldn't control their laughter and started laughing loudly!

The mushroom then slowly walked towards a house made of mushrooms and in mushroom shape.

Tom and Lisa followed the mushroom.

Lisa sneaked to the edge of the house and took a bite of the mushroom.

The mushroom Machraksha noticed her, and said, "it..it..is...is...fine..fine.. you.. you.. can..can.. take.. take.. as.. many many.. bites.. bites.. as you want. It.. it.. it will.. will.. will.. anyway...grow.. grow..grow..back..back..back.."

Lisa took a few more bites and went inside Machraksha's house.

Even inside the house, the furniture was completely made out of mushrooms. Even the food was only mushrooms.

Machraksha said, "Look..look..look..at..at..at.. the..the.meal..meal..meal.. that.. i.. I .. used...agic..magic...magic.. to .. to..create...for..you..you".

Lisa and Tom then looked at the table in front of them to see mushrooms in their own shapes holding hands!!

They each look at each other and then shrugged and gobbled up the mushrooms. They had not realized how hungry they were!

Tom and Lisa then thanked Machraksha. Tom asked, "Could you please show us the way out of this land?"

Machraksha said, "Ok..ok..ok..ok..ok..ok..ook..ok..o k...."

Machraksha then led them out of the house and to another stone near the house that was shaped like a fairy and told them, "A..A..por..por..portal..to..to ..the... fairy...land" . Lisa asked the mushroom, "What's a portal?"
The mushroom said, surprised, "Don't..don't you..you..know..know..what..what..is ..a..por..portal?"

CHAPTER EIGHT- MUSHROOM LAND

Lisa said, “No, I don’t”.

The mushroom then explained, portal is a source of magic which will take them to different lands. And that is how they would have landed in the mushroom land in the first place.

Lisa and Tom thanked the mushroom, touched the stone and returned to the plain land in fairy land.

They sighed in relief looking at their normal bodies!.

CHAPTER NINE – THE WIZARD OF EVIL LAND

Meanwhile, in some other place far away from Lisa and Tom, a big wizard named Louis from a land called Evil land (where all evil magicians lived) came to Forbidden Line in Fairy Land through a magical portal. His aim was to create more portals to Evil land from Fairy Land to trick more fairies and capture them in evil land.

He had a long white beard that came till his chest. And, also, had a magical cloak which could keep him invisible and no one could even hear him.

He carried a green magical gem with him which had enough magic to take one to evil land.

He planned to put the magical gem on the door knob of Travelers rest house so that anyone who touched the knob would get transported to evil land.

He started walking into the fairy land. Suddenly he heard a loud sound behind him. He looked back and saw his friend following him.

He was surprised to see him there and asked, "Hey! What are you doing here? Did you follow me here??"

His friend said, "Yes, I wanted to keep you safe from the fairies. What if somebody heard you even with the cloak?"

Louis said, "Never mind, no one will hear me. Cloak is powerful enough to not let anyone sense me."

Louis and his friend both got the same cloak and surrounded themselves with double cloak for extra protection.

They walked towards the Travellers rest house.

On the way, they passed fairy flying school. Louis said, I need some air. Let's get out of this cloak for a bit. Nobody seems to be around.

They took out the cloak and rested. But, at that moment, 2 small fairies noticed them and screamed, "Wizards from evil land!!! Help!!!"

On hearing the scream, the 2 wizards covered themselves immediately. Adult fairies started coming towards the small fairies. An adult fairy went towards the small fairies and asked, "Where are the wizards?"

The baby fairy pointed to where Louis and his friend were hidden and said, "There. They disappeared when we screamed!" On hearing that, Louis and his friend ran towards the rest house to escape from the adult fairies.

The adult fairy looked around and then told the baby fairies, "You must have imagined. There is nobody here."

In the meantime, Louis and his friend reached the rest house and as per their plan, fixed the gem to the door knob.

They then went back to the forbidden enchanted line and back to the evil land.

CHAPTER TEN – EVIL LAND

Tom and Lisa decided it was high time they walked out of the plain land. They had had enough of weird adventures and had not found the thief fairy either.

They walked out of the plain land. A small fairy suddenly approached Tom and Lisa and said, "Lisa and Tom, why are you just roaming about here?" Lisa explained about the tooth being stolen, how they reached the plain land and their adventures thereafter.

The small fairy said, "Can I join you in your search for the tooth?"

Tom said, "Of course, you will be a great help in the search. What is your name?" The small fairy said, "I'm Emtopia. Thank you for letting me join the search".

Lisa asked Emtopia, "Where do you think we should go next?"

Emtopia said, "Let's try travellers rest house. Sometimes, when there are no travellers, thief fairies hide there. Do you know the way?"

Tom said, "We have a map that will help us find our way. But, we started from traveller's rest house. We have checked there already. Nobody was there."

Emtopia said, "I think we should try checking it out again. There's a high chance she might have gone there now since there are no travellers."

Tom and Lisa agreed. It was getting dark. All 3 of them went back to the traveller's rest house. There was no sign of the thief fairy anywhere nearby.

They went towards the entrance of the traveller's rest house.

Lisa turned the door knob to open the door, but suddenly screamed, "Something is happening! This is also a portal. Please hold me so that I don't go to any other land!"

Tom and Emtopia each held one hand of Lisa's and tried pulling her back.

Instead, a strong wind blew all 3 of them towards the portal and into the Evil Land.

They saw a lot of things in evil land which had long teeth that went till their legs. These things had hands which were dark green in colour and a dark blue face.

One of the things shouted, "Those 2 children and the fairy look yummy. Let's have them for dinner."

One of the other things said, "It's still not dinnertime! Soldiers, put them in prison till its time to cook them for dinner!"

2 evil and strong things with long teeth came to the 2 children and Emtopia and pushed them into prison using a spell.

Lisa said sadly, "Not again! We are stuck again in a prison!" Emtopia said, "Let's try finding a way out of here."

Tom agreed. All 3 of them looked around and saw nothing useful.

Emtopia suddenly said, "Hey! Look here, a trapdoor!" Lisa and Tom came close to Emtopia said, "Where? We don't see any!"

Emtopia said, "It's right here. Can't you guys see it?"

Tom and Lisa shook their heads.

Emtopia then thought aloud, "Interesting, maybe only fairies can spot it." Lisa and Tom said together sadly, "How do we get out of here then?"

Emtopia then said, "Let me try opening the trapdoor. Let's see what happens". Emtopia then pulled the trapdoor open. A blue light blasted into the room.

Lisa said, "Woah! What is this light?"

Nobody knew what it was. The blue light slowly faded away.

Emtopia said, "Let's get inside the door and see where it leads us to".

They all jumped inside and landed in a clearing outdoors. They had managed to escape the prison. It was very dark outside.

Tom remembered he had a torch and switched it on. They noticed a huge stone lying in the corner. Lisa said, "What's that stone? Is it another portal?" Tom said, "Let's check it out".

They went to the stone and tried pulling it. Immediately, they were transported to a forest with trees all around.

CHAPTER ELEVEN – THE QUICK SAND FIELD

Lisa said, “Phew! We are out of evil land, looks like!” Tom said, “I wish we find the tooth soon!”

Tom remembered they had promised the queen that they would go back home soon.

Tom looked at his map to check where they were and if they could find a forest in the map. He said, pointing to a forest in the map, “Maybe we are here, the enchanted line.”

Emtopia said scared, “Oh no! We fairies are not supposed to be here! Let’s quickly get out of here.”

They went around the forest and somehow got out into a field. There was a dark brown layer of land in the middle of the field which looked out of place. Lisa said, “Look at the brown patch. Shall we go and see what that is?”

Tom agreed.
Before Emtopia could say anything, Tom and Lisa ran to the brown patch and stepped on it. Emtopia shouted to them, “Don’t go there! Its quick sand! You’ll get stuck”. But, by then they had already stepped on it. Tom and Lisa panicked. They tried moving forward but they were stuck.

They said, “Emtopia, we are stuck. Please help!”

Emtopia said, “Oh! I don’t know any spells to help you. I will fetch my mother. She can help you.”

She flew to her house and returned soon with her mother.

Her mother said, “Oh dear! Let me help you!”
She used her magical spell to get them both out of the quicksand patch onto the field. Lisa and Tom thanked her for saving them.

CHAPTER TWELVE – THE HUT

Emtopia's mother asked her if she would be coming back home. But Emtopia refused and said, "You go home, mother. I want to help Lisa and Tom find the lost tooth".

Her mother told her, "Ok, then see you later. But be careful. You too, Lisa and Tom!" She flew back home.

Lisa, Tom and Emtopia walked out of the field. As they reached towards the end of the field, they noticed a house in the side of the pathway that they were walking on.

The house had a roof made out of wood. The walls were made out of tree trunks. The doorway was covered by a curtain of leaves. There was also a rope ladder hanging from the roof of the house. They noticed there were dried fruits on the roof.

Lisa and Tom said, "Let's go inside the house and check it out" Emtopia said, "I don't know. It doesn't look safe."

Lisa said, "It doesn't look so bad!. It looks so cute!"

Emtopia sighed and said, "Ok, both of you go inside. I'll stay back here in case there is trouble and I need to fetch someone".

Lisa and Tom went inside the house and saw an old fairy sitting beside a fireplace with a table in front of her. It was a small house with 2 rooms.

The old fairy said in a grumpy tone, "Who are you? Why are you in my house?"

Lisa said, "We just noticed your house on our way and thought of checking it out."

The old fairy said, "You shouldn't have entered my house. It's too late now for you to go. You deserve to get into the prisoner's room and stay locked there".

Lisa and Tom were very scared. The old fairy got up slowly and using her wand, pushed Lisa and Tom into the prisoner's room and locked them with magic.

Lisa started sobbing. Tom said, "Cheer up Lisa. Emtopia will soon know we are in trouble. She will do something to get us out."

Lisa stopped sobbing.

They noticed triangular items in a corner of the room. Tom went to the corner to check what those were. He tried pulling one thinking they might be a portal but it was just an object.

Lisa suddenly saw Emtopia fly into the room through a small crack in the wall. Lisa and Tom were very happy looking at her.

Emtopia said, "I have come to save you. Here's the plan. I'll use my magic to shrink you both so that you can get out through the crack I came in"

Emtopia used her magic to shrink Tom and Lisa. Then they all flew out through the crack.

Emtopia said, after they were out, "Look, we need to trap that old fairy so that she doesn't trap other people like you. I have a plan".

Emtopia, along with Lisa and Tom went inside the house again to talk to the old fairy. The fairy said angrily, "You both! How are you so small? And how did you escape?" Emtopia said, "Oh, old fairy. Please do tell us why did you trap my 2 friends here?"

The old fairy said, "I just don't want anyone to see what I'm doing or to disturb me. I have been alone all my life. No one cares about me. They come to only cause harm to me!"

Emtopia, Tom and Lisa felt sad listening to this. Emtopia said, "No no, my friends did not mean any harm to you. They just wanted to see what's inside as the house looked very beautiful. We are sorry for disturbing you. "

The old fairy's face softened and she said, "I'm sorry kids. I got very angry. I will not be like this anymore. You kids are welcome to visit me anytime!"

Emtopia happily went forward and hugged the old fairy. Lisa and Tom followed. Then they said their goodbyes to the old fairy and stepped out.

All of a sudden, Lisa shouted, "Emtopia, Tom, look up! There's our thief fairy with the tooth! I'll go after her".

By then, the thief fairy had heard Lisa's shout. Lisa had shouted so loudly, that the thief fairy got scared and in her fright, dropped the tooth. She immediately started flying down to the ground to pick it up.

But, Lisa was faster. She ran to the tooth and picked it up. She then went back to Emtopia and Tom and handed the tooth to Emtopia saying, "Here it is. Keep it safe".

Emtopia took the tooth and uttered the spell "Keep it safe". A glass ball came out of nowhere and surrounded the tooth. The tooth was now safe.

Emtopia then said loudly to the thief fairy, while waving her wand, "Hey you!, you will go straight to the fairy prison!"

A chair magically appeared and the fairy was tied to the chair. Then there appeared a very strong wind all of a sudden which flew the fairy tied to the chair away.

Lisa asked Emtopia, "Wow, how did you do this?" Emtopia smiled and said, "I am a wind fairy".

Emtopia then waved her wand and turned Lisa and Tom back to their original size.

She then asked them, "Do you want me to use my powers to create a strong wind to send you home?"

Tom said, "We first need to go to Eclina to return the tooth to her. Can you send us there?"

Emtopia nodded and said, "Of course! Get ready!"

And then she created a very strong wind which sent Lisa and Tom to Eclina's house. Tom said, "Wow, that was quite a ride!" Lisa agreed laughing.

They then knocked on Eclina's door. When she opened it, she was relieved to see the 2 of them.

They happily gave the tooth back to Eclina and said, "There you go! Your tooth safely back to you". Eclina said, "Thank you Tom and Lisa! You have been very brave. I will now handover this tooth to the builder fairies who have been waiting for it."

She then added, "You should also head home now. Safe travels!"

Tom and Lisa nodded and said goodbye to Eclina. They then walked back to the tunnel through which they had come. They followed the tunnel and finally reached home.

Lisa said, "I wish we could have stayed in fairy land for some more time!" Tom asked, surprised, "What fairy land Lisa!!" Lisa was taken aback. She then said, "What about the adventure we had?"

Tom asked, "What are you talking about Lisa? What adventure? We just went to the garden for a stroll. Do you call that an adventure?"

Lisa remembered Roseletten had told her that Tom was under a spell in fairy land to make him believe in fairies and once out, he would forget all about it.

Lisa signed and said, "Forget it. Let's go home".
